GENERAL NOTES.

The wife of a tragedian has applied for a divorce. She says her husband acts so she can't live with him.

Pennsylvania's military expenses in putting down the railroad riot run up to the handsome figure of $700,000.

Dr. Talmage believes in a veritable lake that burns with fire and brim stone.

N. Y. Herald: North Carolina has a man who is the father of twenty-seven children, and it isn't much of a North Carolina day, either, much as it were.

When a Turk comes out of battle with the forefinger of his right hand shot off, his commander orders him into the trenches to work with a spade.

An eagle of great size and beauty has been hovering round Windsor Castle of late, often settling over the Queen's apartments, and the event has created no little talk among superstitious folk in the environs.

Spurgeon (who, by the way, has been sick) in a recent sermon deplored the prevailing infidelity of the age, remarking that clergymen were not afraid to profess principles which formerly only the most daring atheists had the temerity to avow.

A chaplain, preaching at great length before Lord Mulgrave, was informed by his Lordship that there were some things in his sermon he had never heard before. The flattered speaker asked what they were. "Sir, I heard the clock strike twice."

A squad of police were sent to a Cincinnati theatre to arrest the dancers of a can-can. The manager substituted boys, in ballet dress, for the usual performers, and the officers did not discover the trick until the raid had been made.

The funeral of Victor Emanuel will take place on Thursday next, when the remains will be deposited in the Pantheon. The military procession will be of the most imposing character and the ecclesiastics will participate in the last ceremonies to the departed hero and king.

A gentleman called at Logan House early one forenoon, wishing to see the laird. "Oh sir," said the servant, "he has some company with him." "I am afraid that I have called too soon," they'll not have done with breakfast." "Deed, sir, it's yesterday's dinner they're not done with."

Several of the ladies who visited Washington last week to advocate woman suffrage, went to call upon Mrs. Hayes, and were received with great distinction. They were delighted, but observed that neither the President nor his wife expressed any positive opinion in regard to "the cause."

The production of gold in the United States, anterior to 1858, footed up in round numbers $539,000,000 of which the greatest production for one year was $55,000,000, in 1853. From 1858 to 1875 the aggregate production was $807,000,000, making the total yield by the country, including 1875, $1,346,000,000.

A New York jeweler, from whom a stranger ordered $800 worth of watches in the name of a well known Stanford man, took the goods to Stanford instead of sending them, because he feared a swindle. He found his suspicion verified, and felt so good to think that he had not been cheated that he got drunk, when a thief robbed him of his $800 package.

It is a French philosopher who says that "the average female dresses for her lover or her husband; the girl for her rivals; but only the true woman for herself." The same philosopher has observed that "the German woman is covered, the English woman clothed and the French woman dressed." The American woman combines all these characteristics, except sometimes that of the German.

Dr. Robert Blackburn, a Chicago dentist, the son of a Cincinnati doctor of high reputation who was known as the author of several standard books on medicine and a distinguished army surgeon, has been arrested for embezzling. He had made a vain though desperate struggle to earn bread for himself and wife, and yielded to the temptation of a man who showed him how easily the counterfeits could be made.

Swift had a way of extemporizing proverbs to suit the occasion. Thus, observing that a gentleman in whose garden he walked with some friends seemed to have no intention to request them to eat of the fruit, Swift observed, "It was a saying of my dear grandmother, 'Always pull a peach when it is within your reach.'"

When Osman Pasha arrived at the Hotel at Bucharest, a little Roumanian girl stepped forward and presented him with a beautiful bouquet of flowers. The tiny donor was lifted up by the physician of the Marshal and the defender of Plevna bestowed a hearty kiss upon the lips of the little lady. Osman appeared greatly touched by this incident. By the way, Osman Pasha manifested a truly Turkish obstinacy about having his wound dressed, and sometimes refused for days together to allow the surgeons to look at it.

Matrimonial Bills.

[Detroit Free Press.] What a sweet thought it would be to newly married couples if they could be certain that no angry or harsh words would ever pass between them. Scolding is undoubtedly one of the greatest drawbacks to matrimonial happiness. A couple were united in Chicago on Tuesday who will never engage in any such unseemly wrangles as those which disturb the peace of many a happy home. No certain lectures for the happy groom loom up in the future, no cross words from his mother used to cook, peer out from time to time from the kitchen, no shrill questioning as to where he has been to this time of night, no thick and evasive replies about the lodge, or seeing a sick friend. The bride and groom are deaf and dumb, as also were the attendants and minister. There is little use in wishing them a happy life, for that is a foregone conclusion.

THOMAS LORD AND WIFE.—The sons of Mr. Thomas Lord are still in ignorance of the whereabouts of Lady Teazle and eccentric sire, and apparently have given up the search for him and his blooming bride. The servants at the residence of Mrs. Lord also profess to know nothing of the whereabouts of the missing couple, and the disappearance of the happy pair in different cities are in circulation, but time only can solve the mystery.

MISCELLANEOUS.

ODORLESS.

Is the most powerful and lasting disinfectant known. It may be safely used under any circumstances. It purifies the air instantly in the sick room and hospital, preventing the spread of fever and contagious diseases. Damp clothes made healthy. Burns and stables purified; put it in water closets and urinals and it renders them odorless and free from contagion. Tightly inhabited houses, crowded rooms and halls given a pure and healthy atmosphere. It is a pure and healthy disinfectant for use in ships. It is the best known means for counteracting the odor from blue water, will purify the ship and in no way injure her material. See circular. Should use it as all bad odors will immediately disappear. Railroad companies need it. In the winter season it is indispensable. Restaurants and hotels need it. Undertakers can preserve bodies one month without the point of decomposition. It is cheap, valuable and highly recommended as the

BEST DISINFECTANT

by every one that has used it.

It is sold by all druggists—box 25 cents—both 25 cents.

The Liberator's Exodus.
Some days since we noticed the de-
- parture of a number of colored persons
- from this section, and were anxious to
- settle as colonists. At the time we
- spoke of the emigration fever which
- has raged among the darkeys in South
- Carolina and some other States, we
- in and around Charleston the minds of
- the negroes have been set on the hope
- of going to Liberia, but the Southern
- How says: The Liberator has been
- with such fury among the colored
- population for the past few
- months, as we predicted, now turned
- into a daily. Hundreds of colored men
- and women have been flocking to
- the place, and many of them have
- been sent to the place without leaving town. From a
- dog, and to some owner of a cellar
- or basement, proceed to "go through"
- the place carefully and there is every
- probability of your finding a person
- strolling away somewhere. Yesterday
- Policeman Saml. Betts was on tour of
- investigation in the cellar of Higgs's
- store, when to his surprise he found
- two fine, fat, possums, which had hid
- themselves up in a most comfortable
- manner and prepared to pass the win-
- ter in those snug quarters. Mr. Betts
- rudely disturbed their dreams of hap-
- piness by "taking them out of the
- wet." We congratulate him upon his
- success as a sportsman.

Negligence Court.
Before Justice Upchurch, State and
- Wm. Womble ex. Zach. Broughton. As-
- sault and battery. Judgement: defend-
- ant required to give bond in the sum of
- $100 for his appearance at next term of
- the Criminal Court. Bond was given.

Murder Come to Light.
We learn from a gentleman just from
- Salisbury that a most diabolical murder
- has just come to light in Catawba
- county. The facts are as follows:
- About nine months ago a man, woman
- and little girl were traveling through
- the country, and one evening, at Mr.
- Setzer's, near Newton, they left the
- little girl and went into town and were
- married. After going back for the girl
- they disappeared, and nothing more was heard of them. After some time had

- elapsed the minister who married them
- received a letter from one in Union
- county, asking if he had married them.
- From the description of the parties
- which they had given in their letter, the
- minister was sure they were the parties.
- It all passed out of mind until last Sat-
- urday, when near Hickory some dogs
- were seen digging up bones that had
- been buried about eighteen inches deep.
- Upon examination they proved to be the
- bones of a woman and child, and from
- the dress, a portion of which still re-
- mained, and the hair, the minister re-
- cognized the woman he had married to
- this man. He is supposed to be in
- Union county, and will soon be arrested,
- if he has not already been. His name
- is withheld for the present.

The Poor of this City.
The patient suffering endured by the
- unfortunate poor of this city, not only
- demands the serious attention of pro-
- prietor and Christian, but the consideration
- of all.

There are many families utterly
- destitute of the mere necessities of life
- in this community, no man will deny
- this. If he restricts himself on the
- subject a few moments. A short visit
- to the eastern portion of the city, Mon-
- day evening, unless some relief would
- reach the heart of any man. Number-
- less small houses could be seen, and the
- nearer you approached them the more
- desolate they looked, and the more
- numerous the miserable little tenement
- houses, with no smoke ascending
- from their chimneys to greet the eye,
- no wood in the yard, you would natu-
- rally conclude they were not inhabited;
- but still they contained the souls of wo-
- men and children suffering for every-
- thing that is necessary to sustain life.
- And when these poor helpless suffer-
- ing people related to me their misery
- and wretchedness, I could not but re-
- solve to do in my power to alleviate their
- suffering.

Why is this suffering allowed to con-
- tinue? Is it because we have not the
- means of procuring them meat and
- bread? No, it is because we have no
- money to buy them wood? No. The
- reason I think is that the Christian
- people of this community are not aware
- of the suffering that is in our midst. Can
- a man be a Christian and see his neighbor
- suffer thus? Citizens of Raleigh let
- not the misery, suffering and wretched-
- ness of these people pass by. Let us
- do in our power to alleviate their
- suffering.

Look Out For New Counterfeits.
As specimens of the counterfeiters
- mentioned in the circular below, which
- is from the office of the chief of the
- United States Secret Service, have been
- seen in Raleigh, it would be well for
- the readers of the News to observe the
- distinguishing marks therein noted:

"A new counterfeit five-dollar note
- on the First National Bank of Hanover,
- Pa., has made its appearance. The pa-
- per is very thin and color dark, date
- February 20, 1864, and bearing the sig-
- natures of F. E. Spomer and L. E.
- Clifton. About September 20, 1871,
- a well executed counterfeit five-dollar
- note on the First National Bank of
- Tampa, Fla., made its appearance. It
- was a good imitation of the original,
- in the word 'dollars' has a buried hole,
- as though done in printing. On the
- back the word 'one' is spelled 'ow' and
- the word 'thousand' is spelled 'thous-
- and'.

The counterfeit five-dollar note
- on the First National Bank of
- Hanover, Pa., is printed from the same
- counterfeit plate as the Tampa, and
- bears the same characteristics, with the
- exception that the word 'one' has been
- corrected; but two notes can be discerned
- over the word.

McDonald-Rice.
Some days since Mr. John A. McDon-
- ald, so well known in our city, addressed
- a letter to Gov. Rice, of Massachusetts,
- who has made it his business to re-
- spond to the calls of the colored people
- from this Commonwealth, and in it
- paid an especial compliment to the lan-
- guage of his inaugural toward the
- South, and to express his gratification
- for the friendly feelings and fraternal
- spirit evinced. In reply, Mr. McDonald
- received the following:

COMMONWEALTH OF MASS.
EXECUTIVE DEPT.
BOSTON, MASS., Jan. 10, 1877.
John A. McDonald, Esq., Raleigh, N. C.
DEAR SIR:—I have received your val-
- ued favor of the 8th inst., and am
- pleased to know that the language of
- your State agreed with the fraternal
- spirit which pervades the minds of the
- people of this State.

What the North and the South both
- want now is mutual peace and that
- confidence which forms the basis of
- future prosperity.

Yours, very truly,
ALEXANDER H. RICE.

The Baby Show.
A good display will be at the
- exhibition of infantile beauty and grace
- which shall be held by Messrs. W. C.
- Stronach and F. C. Stronach, as man-
- aged by the ladies of the Raleigh Light
- Infantry, and the exhibition of the
- State agreed with the fraternal

Marriage in Goldsboro.—Rev
- Mr. Larmour to Miss Griswold.
At 3 o'clock yesterday, in St. Ste-
- phens Episcopal Church, Goldsboro,
- occurred the marriage ceremony of Miss
- M. A. Griswold, the eldest daughter of
- Mrs. Sarah A. and the late John H.
- Griswold, to the Rev. J. Worrall Lar-
-mour, the beloved Rector of Saint Ste-
- phens Parish of the same city. The
- beautiful and impressive marriage cere-
- mony of the Episcopal Church was per-
- formed by the Rev. Ed. R. Rich, Rec-
- tor of the Church of the Good Shepherd,
- of this city, assisted by the Rev. T. M.
- B. Lyman, D. D., Asst. Bishop of North
- Carolina. The bride and groom were
- attended by the families of both parties.
- The church, which is one of the
- largest houses of worship in the city,
- was elegantly decorated with evergreen
- cedar, and beautiful flowers twined in
- wreaths, presenting a scene of rare
- beauty. In its adornment, taste and
- skill were displayed. The music was
- especially good; Mrs. W. H. Freeman
- presided at the organ. The weather
- was all that could be desired for the
- occasion. The building was crowded.
- The happy couple retired from the - church amid the congratulations of the
- numerous throng that had assembled
- to witness the marriage, to the parson's
- of the Humphreys Hotel, where a brief
- reception was held.

The party reached Raleigh at 6:30 p.
- m., and are the guests of Rev. Mr.
- Rich, at his residence on Hillsboro
- street.

The bride is one of the most popular
- and greatly admired ladies of Golds-
- boro. She is largely connected, and a
- niece of Mr. Richard J. Gregory, of the
- same city.

The Rev. Mr. Larmour, the bride-
- groom is Rector of St. Stephens Church
- in Goldsboro, a position which he has
- filled acceptably since the 13th day of
- December, 1868. He is a native of
- Maryland. Mr. Larmour is much re-
- spected throughout the Diocese. He
- was elected Episcopate of the Episcopal
- Convention at the annual session held
- in 1876.

Enthusiastic Meeting.
The Raleigh Light Infantry had a
- large meeting last Monday evening at
- their army, nearly every member
- being present. Eleven members were
- elected, and a number of fresh men
- were proposed. The revised Constitu-
- tion and by-laws of the Company were
- read, and the Light Infantry of the
- Raleigh's pride and boast. Capt. Cam-
- eron has inspired his men with a por-
- tion of his own energy.

Mayor's Court.
Two darky juveniles were hauled up
- yesterday before His Honor, and gave
- their names as John Lockyear and
- Henry Smith. The charge against them
- was larceny, of which they were at
- once found guilty, and in default of
- bail were jailed.

Capt. A. M. Noble.
This gentleman, late of Selma, John-
- son county, and so well and favorably
- known in this State, is connected with
- the reliable house of William Devries
- & Co., of Baltimore. His card appears
- in our advertising column.

Raleigh Female Seminary.
The Spring term of Raleigh Female
- Seminary opened on Thursday morning,
- January 17, 1877.

Penitentiary Birds.
Deputy Sheriff M. A. Smith, of Row-
- an county, brought down five convicts
- yesterday, four white and one colored.
- All were convicted of larceny and sen-
- tenced to terms of imprisonment of
- from one to two years each.

If you want your stoves, heaters or
- ranges put up or repaired, call on J. C.
- Brewster, who has had a great experi-
- ence in the business and warrants his
- work. Tin roofing done at the
- shortest notice and of the best mate-
- rial. Guns, Locks, Pistols and Sewing
- Machines repaired.

State Board of Agriculture.
A regular meeting of this body was
- held in this city yesterday. The Cor-
- porable but Agriculture was especially
- instructed to collect all the varieties of
- cereals, woods, minerals and other pro-
- ducts of our State for exhibition at
- Paris during the approaching Exposi-
- tion. These specimens are to be for-
- warded through the United States of-
- ficials in charge of the American Depart-
- ment at the Exposition. The report of
- Dr. A. R. Leconte upon the sugar beet
- was read, and it was decided to test
- the beet to the fullest extent, and there-
- fore to give it another trial this year.

The decision of the Board that our
- State shall be represented at Paris,
- ought to be a cause of pride to our
- people, and every effort should be put
- forth to collect and forward the finest
- and most perfect specimens of our
- products.

North Carolina was the only State
- represented as a State at Vienna in
- 1873, and with our increased facilities
- and larger public spirit we now have the
- display ought to be not only highly
- creditable but complete.

The only way in which the material
- interests of this or any other State can
- be advanced is by systematic
- commercial labor on the part of
- its citizens; so let each man
- who loves North Carolina do his share
- to make our exhibition worthy of our
- people.

Wake Superior Court.
Court met at 10 A. M. His Honor
- Judge McKay presiding. The follow-
- ing cases were called for trial:
Hurst, wife of A. S. Shipp. Judg-
- ment non-suit.

Bensley ex. Andrews, Beaman & Co.
- V. Andrews, et al. Judgment for plain-
- tiff, $100.00, with costs.

Several cases were continued, refer-
- red, and orders made. Court adjourned
- until this morning at 10 o'clock.

Watkins Pardoned.
Marshal Hill yesterday received the
- warrant of the President of the United
- States for the pardon of W. Watkins,
- of Granville county, convicted of con-
- cealing tobacco at the late term of the
- Circuit Court for the Eastern District of
- North Carolina. Mr. Watkins is now
- confined in jail at Oxford.

A Gentle Hint.
In our style of climate, with its sud-
- den changes of temperature—rain, wind
- and sun, and often intermingled in
- single day—it is no wonder that our
- children, friends and relatives are so
- frequently taken from us by neglected
- colds, half-dressed, or without a coat
- from this cause. A bottle of Bosche's
- German Syrup kept about your home
- for winter use will prevent serious
- sickness, a large dose of the bill, and
- perhaps death, by the use of this or four
- drops. For curing Consumption, Hem-
- orrhages, Pneumonia, Severe Coughs,
- Croup, or any disease of the Throat,
- or Lung, it is a simple wonder.

As your druggist will tell you, German
- Syrup is now sold in every town and
- village of this continent. See sample bot-
- tles for trial. 10c; regular size, 75c.

A home to be a home in the best
- and truest sense of the word must have
- all its surroundings in perfect harmo-
- ny. The situation good, the people ardu-
- sensible and nice, and above all to have
- a good cook stove in the kitchen, and
- good heating stoves in the house and
- keep your lamps filled with the safest
- oil. To insure these, every house-
- holder should go to Lammey's, west
- side Fayetteville street, where they can
- buy the "Old North State Cook Stove"
- and the "Headlight" lamp oil, also the
- best and house furnishing goods to suit
- everybody.
